

ARTISTS' SELECTION EVENT 2010

COMMUNITY ARTS PARTNERSHIP ARTISTS' SELECTION

GCAC's current and former board members began the search for Columbus' most innovative artists in April – canvassing local galleries and studios for 10 nominees to be considered for the Community Arts Partnership awards. The Community Arts Partnership Art Selection event was held August 10 at the new Ray's Living Room Gallery in the Short North. GCAC Board and former board members selected three original pieces of art from local artists to award to our winners today.

PARTICIPATING ARTISTS:

Jennifer Belt

Sarah Fairchild

Anthony Gelpi

Rob Jones

Drew Jones

Robert Metzger

A.J. Oishi

Ryan Orweiler

Stephen Paris

Julie Taggart

Artist photos by Will Shively

Special thanks to Tasi and Kent Rigsby for hosting the Artists' Selection event at Ray's Living Room.

JENNIFER BELT, ONE UNDER THE SUN

Jennifer Belt earned her BA in psychology from the University of Akron in 1998. In 1999 she started freelancing as an interior designer for friends and family and in a short time began professional consultations in Columbus. As the demand for Belt's time and services grew, she moved to Columbus and started her own interior design business. Belt co-owns Ruby Rose Studio in Bexley.